Four Generations at Swaledale Christening

Four generations of Dalesfolk were present at the christening, at Low Row Methodist Church, of Marise Airey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Airey. They were Mrs. James Bell, aged 84; her daughter, Mrs. Gladys Peacock, Low Whita; Mrs. Reena Airey, granddaughter, and the child, Marise, great-granddaughter.

Mrs. Bell was born at Thwaite, Swaledale, and moved to Harkerside when she was 18. She later moved to Park Hall, and now lives with her daughter at Low Whita, Low Row. She is the eldest daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. George Alderson, of Park Hall.

Mrs. Bell and her family have been workers for Low Row Methodist Church for many years. She is a regular reader of the Darlington and Stockton Times. Still active, she is able to do her housework, and can sew and read without the aid of spectacles.
